PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Operations professional who has spent three months doing Programs work from inside a Sales seat: researching curriculum, documenting how the company runs, and shipping learning products. Delivered 129% of a monthly quota while independently building an AI onboarding platform that leadership moved into company-wide rollout. I pair a seller's read on our programs with the ability to design and build the learning experience end to end, backed by data.

Sales Associate

Bengaluru, India

Apr 2026 to Present

Learning Programs & Operations

- Built and shipped the company's first AI sales-onboarding platform solo, now in rollout to the 15 to 20 person Hyderabad office, taking new hires from day one to floor-ready and freeing senior reps from running repeat training. Sequenced scattered product, pitch, and objection knowledge into a curriculum, then layered in live AI voice mock calls, automated pitch scoring, and post-call coaching. Self-taught the build on Claude across a 15 to 20 day cycle while carrying a quota.
- Removed the dependence on a senior sitting in on every ramp by giving managers a live dashboard of each trainee's mock-call volume, scores, strengths, gaps, and prescribed next steps.
- Redesigned Day-1 onboarding into a 16-session program spanning eight functions (HR, Finance, Sales, Growth, Acquisition, Community, Experience, Support), mapped each session to an owner and duration, and set the reference standard now used across the company.
- Replaced static onboarding decks with five interactive, self-serve learning modules, including a five-program curriculum reference covering funnel stages, program structures, learner pathways, and enrolment rules.

Revenue Performance & Analytics

- Delivered 129% of a monthly target (Rs. 9.7L against Rs. 7.5L), finishing in the top 7 of approximately 30 sales associates.
- Automated sales reporting: converted manual tracking into a daily-updating Google Sheets dashboard on Dial Nexa dialler data, surfacing per-agent and team views now relied on by the Senior Manager, Business Operations and the Associate Director, Growth.
- Runs recurring revenue and funnel analysis across domestic and international teams (show-ups, leads, conversions, units sold, revenue) against a rolling three to four month baseline.
- Helped launch the Hyderabad office alongside HR, including personalised onboarding communications to every new hire.
